Fireside magazine Issue Three Lucas J.W. Johnson, Mary Robinette Kowal, Daniel Abraham, Elizabeth Bear, Rachel Deering

Issue Three opens with Elizabeth Bear's "Form and Void," a story about a difficult friendship tested at the fringe of human exploration. Next is "Remaker, Remaker" by Lucas J.W. Johnson, a look at obsession through a steampunk lens and set in a Roman Empire that never died. After that is our haunting comic, "Famine's Shadow," written by Rachel Deering and illustrated by Christine Larsen. Daniel Abraham follows with "John Fisher", a story about a man, his wary stepdaughter, and an imaginary friend. And we close with Mary Robinette Kowal's "The White Phoenix Feather: A tale of cuisine and ninjas." I don't think you need any more enticement to read than that subtitle, do you?
