Killing the Legend

City life is all Teddy Blue has ever known -- until the craven murder of his brother, a Chicago policeman, changes his world overnight. Determined to hunt down the killer, he joins the Pinkerton Detective Agency and buries all thoughts of his old life along with his slaughtered sibling. But the former law student needs experience -- and Teddy's about to get more than he bargained for in the wide open West, acting as bodyguard to the famous William Hickok. Irascible and unpredictable, "Wild Bill" more than lives up to his name. And now that his eyesight is failing and his taste for opium is increasing, his enemies are preparing to put a permanent end to his fabled career. Suddenly Hickok's survival depends on an untested young man from Illinois -- who's about to learn quick that, in Wyoming, justice isn't won with law and reason . . . but with a loaded Colt and a lightning draw.

Miguel Lynch:

As a student exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's soul or real their hobby. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring and can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Law for Hire: Protecting Hickok can make you experience more interested to read.
