Possible Autism Susan Louise Peterson

2016 Bronze Winner-Parent (Child Care/Family) category of the 2016 eLitBook Awards

Parents have so many practical issues and concerns for their children that they have trouble getting through much of the information on autism, delays and disorders. Susan Louise Peterson, award winning parenting author and school psychologist helps parents look at a number of practical parent issues from a school psychologist's point of view. Possible Autism covers autism attributes, features, connections, aspects and autism indicators on a broad range of topics. The goal of the book- Possible Autism is to help parents explore if the parent issue presented may possibly be an autism characteristic or if other delays and possibilities could be considered.
