Sermons in a Sentence John Bytheway

When you mark your scriptures, have you noticed that you often highlight only a phrase within a verse, or maybe just a word or two, or even a single word? Pondering these individual phrases can open your mind and heart to new thoughts, ideas, and feelings.

It has been said that the very best sermons have a great beginning, a great ending, and very little in between. The scriptures are rich with "Sermons in a Sentence," single phrases that communicate gospel truths with power. In this little book, John Bytheway explores forty-six such sermons, brilliant little gems mined from the priceless pages of the standard works.
