She's searching for love and adventure...could it be right in plain sight?

Emily Phillips had everything figured out when she moved to the scenic town of Gold Creek. But her short stay to save money for a move to Paris turned into a permanent venture when she unexpectedly inherited the local pottery painting studio. In less than two years she's transformed the shop into a soaring success. Unfortunately, her love life hasn't achieved the same stellar results. When a break-up with her two-timing boyfriend comes on the heels of an offer to buy her shop, Emily decides it's time to make good on her dream and book a ticket to the City of Light. Where better to find love and adventure, right?

Ben Nichols, a head-turningly handsome outdoor adventure guide, hasn't taken his eyes off Emily since the day she started work at the shop next to his apartment. But two years ago, a disastrous first date plunged him deep into the friend zone. Now that Emily is finally single again, Ben wonders if he has a second chance – but then her plan to move to Paris shifts into high gear. Can he charm his way into her heart before she packs her bags?
