Una semana de octubre (Spanish Edition) Elizabeth Subercaseaux

Clara Griffin, como muchas mujeres, escribe un diario. Cuando inesperadamente le diagnostican un cáncer, y ante la evidencia de las infidelidades del marido, deja el cuaderno en un sitio donde él pueda encontrarlo y de este modo él comienza a leerlo. ¿Descuido de Clara? ¿Sabiduría femenina para hacerle saber lo que ella sabe y piensa? ¿Venganza conyugal en diferido? En el diario relata con todo detalle las penurias de su matrimonio, y también una ardiente y esporádica aventura extramatrimonial. ¿Serán ciertas las historias que Clemente lee en el diario, o sólo expresan el deseo de Clara de que las cosas hubieran sido diferentes? ¿Se trata de una confesión, o de la novela siempre postergada que ella se decidió a escribir ante la amenaza de la enfermedad? Éstos son los misterios a los que se enfrentará todo aquel que decida leer esta absorbente novela, de la mano de una escritora que parece conocer todas y cada una de las claves de la sensibilidad femenina.
