Bahía de los misterios (Spanish Edition) ROBERTO AMPUERO

Joe Pembroke, profesor del Voltaire College de Chicago y especialista en cultura precolombina, ha sido asesinado en el puerto de Valparaíso de una manera escalofriante: su cabeza fue encontrada en la concurrida calle Esmeralda mientras que su cuerpo fue lanzado a un acantilado con una guadaña grabada a fuego en el pecho. En relación con el homicidio se abren una serie de posibilidades que abarcan desde una venganza por drogas hasta un asunto más secreto demasiado peligroso de investigar. Cayetano Brulé, el detective cubano asentado en Chile, acepta el caso pese a sus múltiples dificultades, y se embarca en una nueva aventura que lo llevará alrededor del mundo en la búsqueda de pistas que se remontan a siglos atrás e involucran los cimientos de la civilización actual.

Bahía de los misterios nos conducirá por nuevos e insospechados caminos de la narrativa policial. Una novela trepidante y exquisita que literalmente atrapa al lector.
