Los perros (Spanish Edition) Lorea Canales

Una novela que reformula la clásica historia de dos hermanos que se destruyen. ¿Cuál es la culpa de cada quien?

Jorge, un profesor de derecho en la UNAM, practicante de yoga y ecologista, da un repentino cambio a su vida cuando es encarcelado injustamente. Su única forma de sobrevivir a las precarias condiciones de la cárcel es pagar... incluso por su dignidad.

Miguel, su hermano y empresario ambicioso, decide expandir su negocio de transporte, aunque eso implique involucrarse en asuntos ilícitos y poner en peligro su vida y la de su familia.

Con una inteligente trama que toca las relaciones de familia y poder, Lorea Canales -autora de la celebrada Apenas Marta- construye una novela estremecedora y compleja inspirada en hechos reales, que atrapa desde el primer momento y expone el destruido paisaje social del México contemporáneo.

"Debajo del México novelado, único, de Lorea Canales, hay un México real atento e inteligentemente observado. Entran ahora su fabulación feliz, sus personajes de carne y hueso, tridimensionales, creíbles."

JOSÉ MANUEL PRIETO

"Una voz narrativa y un juego plural de miradas y voces, cada una delimitando un lugar social, una actitud hacia las cosas. Lorea Canales usa con destreza las artes de la novela para componer un retrato poliédrico, una cierta maqueta narrativa del mundo."
