Memoria de Georges el amargado (Impedimenta) (Spanish Edition) Octave Mirbeau

«Octave Mirbeau es, con todo merecimiento, nuestro más grande escritor francés contemporáneo.»

Lev Tolstói

Escrita en plena efervescencia del célebre affaire Dreyfus, esta Memoria de Georges el amargado es una fábula políticamente incorrecta dotada de un humor negrísimo, donde se mezclan el crimen, los deseos carnales insatisfechos y las eternas preguntas sobre el incierto destino del hombre.

Conoced a Georges L., el héroe de esta nouvelle: no es más que un cajero parisino, de espíritu contemplativo, aparentemente desprovisto de personalidad y condenado a llevar una existencia larvaria. Obsesionado con la abrumadora estupidez y la inmensa fealdad de la raza humana, una sola cosa le mantiene vivo: el odio que siente hacia su esposa, una mujer seca y siniestra cuyo único objetivo es hacerle la vida imposible. Pero Georges tiene una despiadada capacidad para recluirse en sí mismo y para huir de la depravación social que le rodea, y eso le salvará de su propia destrucción.

LA PRENSA HA DICHO:

«El lector que se acerque a esta Memoria dará con todo un elenco de temas absolutamente actuales que provocarán gracia, desacuerdo, compasión, rabia o desazón, pero en ningún caso indiferencia.»
