El cielo no existe (Spanish Edition) Inés Fernández Moreno

Una novela entretenida, cercana y actual, que habla de los vínculos y su capacidad de cambiar el color de las cosas.

Novela ganadora del Premio Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz 2014.

A sus cincuenta años, Cala se encuentra un día con un bebé en los brazos. Se lo ha dejado Sabrina, la chica que cuida a su despótica y anciana madre. Con una vida inestable pero un ánimo siempre renovado, Cala se hará cargo del bebé mientras emprende la búsqueda de Sabrina y reaparece un viejo amor de la adolescencia.

Una Buenos Aires contradictoria, donde conviven la frivolidad y el empobrecimiento, es el escenario apropiado para que esta mujer de clase media descubra un mundo que apenas intuye pero que impone su presencia a diario: las mafias vinculadas a la trata y a las drogas, los servicios profesionales de las chicas "traviesas", los hospitales en ruinas, los barrios precarios del conurbano.

Con su inconfundible capacidad para construir personajes y mostrar con asombro, humor e ironía las ambigüedades de la existencia, Inés Fernández Moreno hace convivir la comedia con el fresco sociológico y la trama intimista con el policial, sin que la mirada crítica opaque el final feliz de esta historia agri dulce.

La crítica ha dicho...

«Una obra "excelente, urbana y muy vigente", en la que a un personaje ordinario le pasan cosas extraordinarias»

Jurado del Premio Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz 2014
