When a loved one dies you begin a journey - a journey through grief. This is a journey each of us must take. It will wind through dark and uncharted lands. Along the way, you will encounter strange and confusing emotions: sorrow, fear, anger, resentment, depression. Philip W. Williams walks with you on the journey, helping you understand the confusing emotions and offering wisdom and insight from others who have lost a loved one. More important, he reminds you that God is always by your side, providing guidance, comfort, and strength.
