Friday is "special" day in Miss Brown's class, when all of the kids bring in one of their favorite special things to share with the class. Peter brings in a strange looking plant called a Venus Fly Trap and Lu Mieu brings in a beautiful bright red kite from China. But Charlie can't think of anything that is special enough to bring to school, and his mom is too busy with his new baby sister to be of much help. Just when Charlie is feeling hopeless about school and left out at home, he makes an important discovery about just how special baby sisters - and big brothers - can be. A refreshing and satisfying look at familiar childhood experiences.
