One Foot Out the Door: Contemporary Christian Romance Novel (Belles in the City Book 2) Debby Mayne

What is a southern belle supposed to do when a slick NYC attorney turns all his attention to her, even though she plans to go back home as soon as her aunt gets better? Bethann often forgets to see the humor in this romantic comedy.

Bethann Russell loses her job, so when her elderly great-aunt needs help, she's the most logical family member to move up to New York to be the caretaker. When attorney Judd Baxter arrives to help Bethann's aunt with her legal affairs, the attraction between him and Bethann is obvious. As Bethann gets to know Judd, she discovers some things about him that make her wonder if he's sincere. And even though she isn't sure she trusts him, that flutter of love grabs hold of her and won't let go. Are his career sacrifices enough to let her know that he's a man of honor?

Christian fiction lovers will enjoy the southern accents, the food, and the ways these belles handle their new home and friends in the big city with just the right balance of humor and drama in this contemporary romance novel.
