A love potion gives Lucy Kaplan the edge she needs to rediscover her long-buried desires. But the change is more than she bargained for. Now she has to rely on more than magic to help her find her happy ending. Let the passion carry you away in Erin Katz's paranormal romance, Love Potion Number Sixty-Nine.

Lucy Kaplan has spent so much time completing her research on finding the cure for childhood cancers that she's neglected her own social life. But when a new doctor joins the hospital research team, she realizes how much she needs to clean up her act and decides to drink a potion given to her by a co-worker. Along with discovering the dream of physical love with Dashall "Dash" Braden, she completely transforms into a new woman. The only problem is that she wants to be loved for who she really is and not the person the spell concocted. Does fate intend to give Dash and Lucy that very chance?
