Storici italiani del Novecento (Saggi) (Italian Edition) Giuseppe Galasso

Giuseppe Galasso è tra i non molti storici italiani che ha sempre affiancato alla ricerca storica un'intensa opera di riflessione intorno alla storia, alla sua identità e ai suoi metodi, specialmente in rapporto alla filosofia e alle scienze sociali, e una particolare attenzione alle vicende metodologiche e critiche della storiografia contemporanea. La prima linea di studio è testimoniata dal precedente volume edito con il Mulino, «Nient'altro che storia» (2000). Questo nuovo libro raccoglie, invece, una serie di saggi dedicati alla storiografia italiana del Novecento: una storiografia di cui Galasso rivendica l'indiscutibile valore a dispetto della scarsa risonanza che spesso essa ha avuto sul piano internazionale, e, non di rado, anche in Italia. Aperto da un bilancio dello stato attuale della ricerca storica in Italia, il volume raccoglie i profili di dodici fra i massimi esponenti di questa storiografia: Gioacchino Volpe, Luigi Salvatorelli, Federico Chabod, Walter Maturi, Delio Cantimori, Ernesto Sestan, Eugenio Garin, Rosario Romeo, Franco Venturi, Renzo De Felice, Gaetano Cozzi, Gabriele De Rosa.
