Ce livre vient combler une réelle lacune dans la présentation du droit international public en se consacrant intégralement au droit international social (dans ses aspects économiques, sociaux et culturels).

À l'instar des autres branches du droit international, le droit international social actuel est le fruit d'une longue histoire ponctuée d'avancées considérables : la constitution de l'Organisation internationale du Travail, de l'UNESCO, de l'OMS, le Pacte international des droits économiques, sociaux et culturels...

Droit programmatore plus qu'obligatoire ?

Le droit international social promeut de plus en plus de droits que les juridictions acceptent de plus en plus d'appliquer. Soft Law davantage que droit ? Sans doute une partie du droit international social présente-t-elle des allures de soft law, mais il n'en reste pas moins efficace. Le « droit dur » y est également très présent, notamment sous forme de droits fondamentaux.

En présentant les spécificités du droit international social (son élaboration, ses mécanismes de mise en oeuvre et de contrôle et ses règles), le présent ouvrage est primordial pour comprendre la dimension sociale de la mondialisation.

Il intéressera les avocats, les magistrats, les fonctionnaires, les institutions, les professeurs, les chercheurs et les étudiants de dernier cycle.
