Makenzie does not hesitate to throw bows, blows, or whatever else she can find if you cross her the wrong way. Either you'll give her respect or she'll take it. Her ex-boyfriend, Jordan, finds out the hard way when he discovers his car decorated after Makenzie catches him rolling through the neighborhood with another female. Her new boyfriend Issayah is a keeper, and Makenzie has no doubt that he is feeling her. But when his Drama Club teammate, Robyn, starts making moves on her man, Makenzie has to set things straight. Mya, Makenzie's ride or die friend tries to reassure her that Robyn is not a factor. But when Makenzie gets heated, no one can calm her down. Makenzie's temper finally lands her in front of a judge who orders her to see a shrink. When dark family secrets that have been buried for years suddenly resurrect, things soon become clear. But will Makenzie realize that a beat down is not the answer to everything before it's too late, or will the Cook County Juvenile Detention Center become her new home?
