Crossfire with you is based on a true story

Well succeed mother of two, coming from a non-functional but wealthy family, she managed to flourish all by herself professionally but failing so far miserably in her love life – Her love life doesn't exist – and the truth is, she lost faith in it.

On a daily basis, she tries to convince herself that is better alone, but loneliness takes place and deep down she would like to be able to love again.

Sometimes, only sometimes – She feels heartless, incapable of feeling something for a man and she wonders – Why can't I live the love of my life? The one which can make my knees go weak, making my heart pound faster and having that lasting love that I never had. – Almost every day she does the same question – why can't I love a caring guy – but love never knocks in my door and asks to get in...never...

She is so tired of waiting for love, longing for a manly arm around was something she missed deeply and one day she decides to do something unthinkable – meeting a man just for sex – and her sins began to haunt her ever since..."

...Patricia lost faith in love – until she finds that love – a crazy and questionable, yet so irrational love for a man, who only takes advantage of her feelings.
