The Protector 1: A Sold to the Alpha Romance (Book 1 of 2) Brittany Adams

"The Protector" is a Sold to the Alpha Romance, and is part 1 of a series.

In a present-day America, a new law has been passed outlawing female slavery for the first time in centuries. But that doesn't stop political dystopia and corruption from spreading their seedy hands as far as they will go.

When Alaska Wilcox finds herself in a corrupt and dangerous housing shelter for women, she knows her days are numbered. But as luck would have it, a business card for Guardian Enterprises mysteriously finds its way into her purse, and she knows she has no choice but to solicit their protection service.

In walks Damon Ingram - hot, huge, and horrendously handsome. He's alpha strong, and she can tell he makes one hell of a protector.

But what Alaska soon learns is that not even Guardian Enterprises is strong enough to keep her safe. Will Damon take her into his protective custody, or will he be forced to leave her on the doorstep of her shelter, where death is imminent?

Please note: "The Protector" is a fully edited re-release of "Sold to the Alpha: Dark Protector." This is part 1. The complete series contains brief but explicit scenes of F/F and M/F action. If any of this offends you, please do not purchase this book. Intended for mature readers over 18 years of age.
