Newly Edited as of 07/01/2012

This story continues where "After the Tears Melt - Vol 2" left off. This book can be read as a stand along book, or after the other four books in the series. It is told from Jimmy's daughter, Ruthie's, perspective.

Ruthie and Cam are twin eight year olds that have to deal with their father's sadness after their Mom dies. Ruthie overhears her Uncle and father talking and learns that Cam might not be her brother after all. After their father disappears for several days, Ruthie and Cam are taken to Atlanta to live with their Aunt and Uncle. It's there that they meet their Grandmother Jane, and her alternate personality Cindy.

If you like V.C. Andrews type books, the Muse series should definitely be on your reading list. There are lies and betrayals and secrets around every corner, and this installment will provide many more.
