Gray Riders is a story about six farm families and a small town community during the first 2-1/2 years of the Civil War in western Missouri. It takes place approximately in the area where the Younger boys were brought up as farm kids.

There are four historical battles that involve the farm families, including the raid on Lawrence, Kansas by the famous outlaw Quantrill.

Most readers feel as if they become part of the families as the story goes on. Positive events take place as well as tragic ones.
