Rimas (Spanish Edition) Bartolomé Mitre

Hace treinta años que el ilustre poeta D. Estéban Echeverría consignó estas palabras en un libro dedicado á la jóven generacion de sus días: «El señor Mitre, artillero científico, soldado en Cagancha y en el sitio de Montevideo, ha adquirido, aunque muy jóven, títulos bastantes como pensador y poeta. Su musa se distingue de los contemporáneos por la franqueza varonil de sus movimientos, y por cierto temple de voz marcial que nos recuerda la entonacion robusta de Calímaco y Tirteo. Se ocupa actualmente de trabajos históricos que le granjearán, sin duda, nuevos lauros.» Precisamente en la época en que las líneas que acaban de leerse se publicaban, (año de 1846) la musa del señor Mitre enmudecía, pues, como él lo ha dicho en su conocida Carta-Prefacio, casi todas las poesías líricas que forman su coleccion fueron escritas por él á la edad de veinte años. Estas poesías, reunidas por la primera vez en un volúmen, se publicaron en Buenos Aires en 1854, precisamente por la imprenta en que hoy se da esta nueva edicion, siendo su editor el mismo que firma esta advertencia. Aunque se hizo un tiraje bastante copioso para la época, la edicion se agotó muy luego, al punto que á los pocos meses nos fué imposible atender á la demanda creciente de la obra. La demanda, lejos de disminuir ha ido creciendo cada vez mas, como hemos podido cerciorarnos por nosotros mismos en el comercio de libros de que hace veinte años que nos ocupamos, obteniendo precios subidos, que no ha alcanzado entre nosotros ningun libro, los pocos ejemplares que por casualidad se ofrecen en venta
